

Discussion Questions

Tactics by Gregory Koukl

Share experiences from the past week.

Chapter 10: Suicide: Views That Self-Destruct

1. Describe a suicidal viewpoint in one sentence.
2. How do we recognize a self-refuting statement?
3. Give an example of a self-refuting statement. (3 or 4 ladies)
4. What was most helpful/encouraging in this chapter?
5. What was most challenging?

Chapter 11: Practical Suicide

6. Briefly describe the difference between formal suicide and practical suicide.
7. Give one example of a statement that commits practical suicide. (3 or 4 ladies)
8. What was most helpful/encouraging in this chapter?
9. What was most challenging?

Chapter 12: Sibling Rivalry and Infanticide

10. Describe sibling rivalry in one sentence.
11. Describe infanticide in one sentence.
12. What is the goal of the Suicide tactic?
13. What was most helpful/encouraging in this chapter?
14. What was most challenging?

Role-play:

Challenge #1: No one can claim to have the truth.

Challenge #2: Religions are all valid.

Challenge #3: We can only know what has been proven by science.

Improve your skills: See how many self-refuting statements you can discover in things you read, statements you hear in person or on TV/radio, or in conversations with others. Be ready to share them next week!