MAMA BEAR APOLOGETICS: GUIDE TO SEXUALITY

by Hillary Morgan Ferrer w/ Amy Davison

Introduction: My Kid's Cartoon Showed What?

Findings from a Pew Research Journal survey were used to illustrate the fallout from the church's inability to fight the spiritual battle defending biblical sexuality: Among evangelical Christians surveyed, 57% approved of premarital sex in a committed relationship; 50% saw no real problem with casual sex; and, nearly 80% between ages 18 and 29 have been sexually active.

1. What was your reaction to this information? Did it surprise you?
2. Have you observed evidence of these statistics among your peers, family members, and social groups?
3. Give a recent example of the shift in our culture's entertainment programming to promote LGBTQ agenda that you have seen/heard. What was your reaction?

Chapter 1: Sexually Set Apart

Main theme: Sex is a very powerful bodily recitation of our marital vows; anything powerful enough to create or destroy can and should be carefully guarded.

4. Give an example of a time when you underestimated the power or danger of something and got hurt.
5. What's the most powerful thing you can think of?
6. Are there any governing controls or regulations for it?
7. What would result if there were no guidelines for it?
