

Discussion Questions

PERSON OF INTEREST
by J. Warner Wallace

Chapter 6: Jesus, the Unfounded Fiction?

1. Why is it important to demonstrate that Jesus' life can be robustly reconstructed from the writings of Christians who liked Jesus, non-Christians who liked Jesus, and non-Christians who disliked Jesus?
2. Why is the reconstruction of Jesus' life from non-Christians who disliked Jesus particularly important?
3. What kind of profile about Jesus' life that we can reconstruct from hostile, non-Christians?
4. What new and/or surprising thing(s) did you learn in this chapter?
5. What information will be most helpful for conversations with others?
6. Any especially impactful/memorable information or quotes?
7. Share the latest book you've read about Jesus and the impact it had on you.