by Don & Joy Veinot and Marcia Montenegro

Chapter 5: Richard Rohr: Which God Does He Serve?

1. Which of Rohr's theological beliefs did you find most surprising or disturbing?
2. Which of Rohr's theological beliefs have you seen reflected among groups like Progressive Christianity? New Age/New Thought? Evangelical believers who are unaware/biblically illiterate? Seekers/skeptics?
3. Why do you think evangelicals in Bible-teaching churches are drawn to (and deceived by) Rohr's theology?

Chapter 6: Reap the Whirlwind

4. Were you surprised to learn that Zondervan, a generally trusted publisher of evangelical books, has promoted and published Enneagram books? (To date, 4 books by Heuertz and a newer one by Jesse Eubanks in 2023). Why or why not?
5. Zondervan has had no qualms about publishing books promoting the Enneagram, but they did temporarily suspend promoting Chris Heuertz's books when he was accused of sexual misconduct. (See article below.) What are your thoughts on this?

6. This chapter describes how several Enneagram authors and teachers have been influenced by people like Richard Rohr, Helen Palmer, Beatrice Chestnut, etc., and the large web of interconnection that exists among those who promote the Enneagram. Has this information changed how you rate the importance of knowing who a person's influencers are? Why or why not?
