FAITHFULLY DIFFERENT

by Natasha Crain

Chapter 12: Reshaping Our Hearts for Sharing the Gospel

1. Do you find evangelism difficult? Why or why not?
2. If a Christian friend said to you that they think it's wrong to share their faith in the hope that someone will convert to Christianity, how would you respond? What if they said that they think it's enough for our actions alone to "do the talking"?
3. If a non-Christian friend said to you that it bothers them when Christians share their faith because it's arrogant to think they know what's best for anyone else, how would you respond?
4. How would you explain to a non-Christian friend why a loving God still requires payment for sin and can't "just" forgive?
5. Did you have a favorite quote? (page #)

Note: Except for the question about a favorite quotation, these questions are taken from end of each chapter in the book Faithfully Different.
